

Other

Snails

There are many other kinds of animals besides arthropods, birds, mammals, fish, reptiles, and amphibians.

Snails for example, are mollusks. Mollusks are cold-blooded. They do not have backbones. They have shells.

- Common garden snails travel about 50 yards (50 meters) per hour.
- Some snails make bubbles to protect themselves from danger like ants or bad-smelling plants that might be dangerous to eat.

Albuquerque Bernalillo County
Water Utility Authority